Ready to Climb? HIGH ROPES COURSE

The David Greenwald Challenge Course at Rand Park is a high element ropes course, right here in Montclair! This experiential learning model is based on challenging oneself and moving beyond perceived limitations. Participants should be prepared to attempt climbing ladders, trees, cable bridges, and more, all while wearing a climbing harness and on belay. For a customized group activity, or general questions, call Paul Mickiewicz, at 973- 744-3400 ext.111 or PaulM@MontclairYMCA.org.

Babysitter Training Course for Youth

Interested in being a mother's helper or finding a job babysitting?

The American Red Cross Babysitter's Training Course provides youth (ages 11-15) with the information necessary to provide safe and responsible care for children in the absence of parents or guardians. Learn what every parent wants in a responsible babysitter. This course can help you interview for a babysitting job, perform first aid, learn diapering and feeding techniques, handle bedtime issues, and learn tips for having a safe and fun babysitting experience. Upon completion you will receive the Red Cross Babysitters Certification card. A great achievement to feature on your babysitting resume.

Class includes babysitter handbook, emergency reference guide and CD ROM. Please bring a lunch. Class will be held at the Helen and Bill Geyer Family Center, 159 Glenridge Avenue.
